- In this project, I leveraged microservice architecture to implement solutions for bank carta creation, insurance generation, and seamless integration, ensuring scalability, flexibility, and robustness

"TEXNO-SOFT" LLC

April 2023 - December 2023

.Net backend developer

RUAPB(Automation of the exchange process)

As a .NET developer, I specialized in crafting and maintaining web applications using C#, ASP.NET, and the .NET Framework. I collaborated closely with my team to design and implement software solutions tailored to project requirements. Noteworthy achievements include developing a dynamic authorization process with a custom attribute, managing permissions via an admin panel, and optimizing backend tasks through a C# Background Service. I also addressed language-related data issues with custom C# code, ensuring data consistency and accuracy. My proactive approach in troubleshooting and resolving technical issues, coupled with active participation in Agile processes, reflects my commitment to delivering high-quality solutions in a collaborative environment.
